New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

Friday Is Remnant Day.

A CLEAR-UP of all remnants which have collected since last Friday. The store must be kept clear of odd and small lots. And there are many such—goods and remnants for present use, for personal wear and home adornment. Some are soiled or mottled or otherwise imperfect. Some are just odds and ends, short lengths or broken sizes, or incomplete lines, and as good as they ever were. Some are reduced a half; some not so much—some more. Every department in the house is represented.

Friday Bargain in Women's Tailored Suits.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Mrs. Taft Comes to Washington To-morrow.

DR. HILL GOES TO NEW YORK

Spanish Minister, Marquis de Villalobar, Leaves for San Francisco Celebration—Wedding Party of Miss Rusling Announced—Mr. and Mrs. Wade Ellis Entertain.

The White House will again be the center of interest when Mrs. Taft returns to-morrow, but it will not be the center of gaiety by any means. Mrs. Taft is not able to attend to any social duties and is still an invalid, although she does get out often to drive or motor.

She will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Louis P. More, of Cincinnati, who took her place as hostess of the White House during the spring, and who will remain for an indefinite stay this winter.

Mrs. Taft will scarcely be able to take her part in social affairs during the coming season, according to the tidings brought by those who have been near her during the summer. The Taft children have all returned to school.

Mrs. Taft and her sister will bid farewell to Beverly this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. They will leave for Washington on a private car attached to the Boston-bound train. Every service will be made at the summer White House for the departure. The stay of Mrs. Taft, which dates from July 3, closes when she and Mrs. More and the latter's young son, John Herrow May, motor over to the Montclair station and board the parlor car which will be sidetracked there.

Since the President left Beverly and the Taft young people returned to school and college, the weeks at Woodberry Point have been quiet. Morning walks have been the everyday programme. Mrs. Taft and Mrs. More walked to town almost daily.

Mrs. Taft's sister has been her constant companion, with the exception of a short time when she and Prof. More went down to their summer place at Biddeford Pool, Me. The private car will be attached to the Federal Express, which leaves Boston at 8 o'clock this evening, arriving in Washington early to-morrow morning. The attaches of the summer White House will also return to Washington on the Federal Express.

Next year the Beverly stay will be longer. The family is expected here about the middle of June and to remain to the middle of October.

Some changes will be made in the interior of the cottage during the winter.

Dr. David Jayne Hill, United States Ambassador to Germany, made a short visit to Washington and left yesterday for New York. Mrs. Hill, who has been visiting with him at Stockbridge as guest of former United States Ambassador to London, Mr. Joseph Choate, has gone to Rochester to visit in her old home for two weeks, the guest of Mrs. Joel Dorman Baker. She will then come to Washington with Ambassador Hill and they will spend three weeks among their old friends here.

The Spanish Minister, the Marquis de Villalobar, left Washington yesterday for San Francisco, to take part in the coming festival to honor the first Spanish governor of California, who was the discoverer of San Francisco Bay.

The wedding party of Miss Emily Wells Rusling, daughter of Gen. James F. Rusling, of Trenton, N. J., who will be married to Representative Arthur L. Bates, of Maryland, Pa., October 20, will include Miss Florence L. Bates, of Maryland, daughter of the bridegroom, and Miss Elizabeth D. Bodine, of Trenton, bridesmaids. Maj. Walter Irving Bates, of Pennsylvania, brother of the bridegroom, will be best man, and the ushers will be Representative Ira W. Wood, of New Jersey, in whose Washington home the bride and bridegroom first met, and Mr. James W. Rusling, of Trenton, brother of the bride. The ceremony will take place in the home of the bride's father in Trenton.

Mrs. Kuhn, wife of Maj. Joseph E. Kuhn, U. S. A., who was formerly Miss Carrie Parker, daughter of the late Maj. Parker, spent the summer as the guest of Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, at her camp in the Adirondacks, and is now in Atlantic City.

She will go from there this week to make visits in Philadelphia, Baltimore, and New York, and to Port Monroe, where Maj. Kuhn was stationed during the summer. From there she will proceed to Fort Leavenworth, Kans., to join Maj. Kuhn, who will be stationed there to establish a special school for engineer officers. Mrs. Kuhn will also visit her sister, Miss Florence L. Bates, at her home in Trenton, where she will meet her mother, Mrs. Parker, who spent her summer at Atlantic City, and her brother, Mr. James W. Rusling, at Trenton.

Mrs. Robert L. Owen, wife of the Senator from Oklahoma, has returned to Washington for a few days, after spending the summer accompanied by her daughter, in Europe. Mrs. Owen returned early to place her daughter in school for the winter. She will not be presented to society for several seasons yet.

Mrs. Sims, wife of Lieut. Commander W. H. Sims, former naval aid to President Roosevelt, has given up her home here and gone to St. Louis to spend the time of the sea service. Lieut. Commander Sims, with her mother, the widow of former Secretary of the Interior Hon. Ethan Allen Hitchcock. Mrs. Sims has her two children with her.

The Assistant Attorney General and Mrs. Wade Ellis entertained a small company informally at dinner last evening in honor of Mr. Ellis' brother, Mr. Shellen Ellis, of Cincinnati, who is spending a few days at the New Willard.

Former First Assistant Postmaster General Perry S. Heath and Mrs. Heath have returned to Washington from their summer home in Nova Scotia, and are at the New Willard until the completion of their new residence at the corner of Florida avenue and Twenty-first street. They hope to occupy it next month.

Mrs. Clarence B. Rheem will go to Princeton, N. J., to-morrow for a short visit to her son, Edmund Domer Rheem, who has just entered Princeton University. Mr. Rheem was captain of the Central High School baseball team before his graduation there, and made a brilliant record as an athlete, as well as acting as business manager of the high school paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cumberland announce the engagement of their daughter Bessie to Mr. Bernard I. Burdette.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Chataud have returned to their Washington home from their summer home at the White Sulphur Springs.

The marriage is announced of Mrs. Anna M. Stinson, of Pittsburgh, formerly of this city, to Mr. Daniel M. Fernandes, of New York. The ceremony was performed Wednesday afternoon in St.

Paul's Episcopal Church by the rector, Rev. John Talbert, in the presence of a small party of intimate friends. Mr. J. D. Fernandes, uncle of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Mr. C. C. Leavens was groomsmen. The bride wore her traveling gown of dark gray with large hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the Shoreham for a small party of immediate relatives and several close friends. The bride and bridegroom are spending a few days at the Riggs House and will then leave for their future home in New York. The bride was accompanied by her younger daughter, Miss Margaret Stinson. Both bride and bridegroom are well known in Washington, the bride during her former residence in this city, and the bridegroom because of frequent business trips here.

The former Mexican Ambassador to this country and Mme. Casaus and their daughters, Misses Marguerite and Evangeline, are at the Hot Springs of Virginia, having arrived there on their private car.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dowling have returned to their home in Brookland from Staunton, Va., where Mrs. Dowling spent the late summer and was joined recently by Mr. Dowling.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Waring are being congratulated upon the birth of a son, William Tunstall Waring.

Mrs. Charles G. Thorn and daughter, Miss Frances M. Thorn, have returned to their home in Baltimore street from their home and Atlantic City, where they spent the past three months. Mr. Charles F. Thorn, who was with his mother and sister, has entered the Van Rensselaer Technical School at Troy to pursue his studies as an electrical engineer. Mrs. Thorn will be among the debutantes of the season, and will be presented to society early in December. Mrs. Thorn has observed a long period of mourning, from which she will emerge this season and entertain for her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Miller are spending this month with the latter's mother, Mrs. Shop, at her home on the Hudson. Mrs. Shop and her family are in deep mourning and taking no part in social affairs, owing to the recent death of Mrs. Shop's eldest son, Mr. George Shop, of New York.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blake Clark, to Mr. John Rodler will take place Wednesday evening, October 20, at 6 o'clock, in St. Stephen's Catholic Church. The ceremony will be followed by a reception in the home of the bride's parents on Washington Circle, from 7 to 10 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Clark entertained on Thursday evening in honor of their daughter and her fiancé.

Baroness Paumgarten and her daughter, Baroness Marie Paumgarten, a debutante of last season, who spent their summer in Michigan and Wisconsin, have returned to Washington for the winter.

The marriage is announced of Miss Lawlor Sublett, formerly of St. Louis, now of Warrenton, Va., to Mr. Charles Russell Deane, son of Capt. Deane, of the British army, of Sussex, England. Miss Sublett is well known in society in Washington, and Baltimore, and the bridegroom is manager of "Arlene," the estate of H. C. Groome, of Philadelphia.

The marriage of Mr. Henry L. James, secretary of the American Embassy at Rio de Janeiro, to Miss Anita Adrian, a noted Chilean beauty, took place in Valparaiso yesterday. Mr. James and his bride sailed immediately after the ceremony for the United States.

One of the prettiest of the autumn weddings was that on Wednesday evening of Miss Alice Hanna, daughter of the late Solicitor of the Navy Department, Hon. E. P. Hanna, to Mr. Harold Hudson Martin, formerly of Atchison, Kans., now of this city, which took place in the country home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Alice Campbell, at Norwood, above Georgetown. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. Charles Wood, pastor of the Church of the Covenant, in the presence of only a small company of close friends and relatives, owing to the deep mourning of the bride's family for her father. The house was charmingly decorated with autumn foliage and blossoms, cosmos and chrysanthemums being used in profusion. The bride was attended by her two sisters, Miss Margaret Hanna and Miss Lulu Hanna. The best man was Mr. F. W. Steckman, and Mr. F. W. Fairbanks was groomsmen. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Frank R. Hanna, of New York. The bridal music was exceptionally good. Mrs. Williston Hough, better known on the concert stage before her marriage as Lotta Mills, playing the marches and some exquisite music during the ceremony, and Miss Hazel Franklin, who has a charming mezzo-soprano voice, sang "Chadwick's 'The Dawn'" and "I Hid My Love," by d'Harcourt. The bride wore a gown of white satin made in severe princess style, with a bertha of roses and duchesse point lace. Her veil of tulle was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower of lilies of the valley and white orchids. Mrs. Campbell, mother of the bride, wore a black satin princess gown, with corsage of violets. Mrs.
